

Mrs. Halliwell Succumbs; Rites Scheduled Tuesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Katherine H. Halliwell, 44, of Garden Grove have been scheduled for 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church with the Rev. Edward M. Blum officiating.

Mrs. Halliwell, a victim of multiple sclerosis, had lived in Torrance for 14 years before moving to Garden Grove last year. The family home is at 13721 Erin St. in that city.

An active member of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church until recent months, Mrs. Halliwell also was active in the Torrance Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, and in the Torrance DeMolay Mothers Club. She was an aircraft planner for Douglas Aircraft before illness forced her to retire.

She is survived by her husband, Robert E. Halliwell; a son, Robert E. Halliwell II, a layreader at St. Andrew's; and a daughter, Kathy.

Also surviving are her mother, Emma Hughes, and

Did you know the people at 17400 Hawthorne are worth 650 million dollars?

It's true. But having all those assets behind them doesn't make the people at Great Western Savings uppity.

On the contrary, they're down-to-earth, neighborly people.

And this neighborly way of doing business is what makes Great Western great.

Each of the eight offices operates independently. Each operates, first and foremost, for the community in which it is located.

The Great Western Savings office here, for instance, is exclusively concerned with the progress, the problems and the people of the community.

The people who work here at Great Western Savings take an active part in this community's civic affairs. They live here and belong to local organizations. They know what makes this community "tick."

And they know many of the people who live here by their first names.

This kind of good-neighbor policy enables them to serve you better.

So, the next time you're in the neighborhood, drop in and meet the people who hang their hat at Great Western Savings.
